

HIS LOVE GREEN BOO

"Hello Girl" Wants Divorce
From William Brooke.

ONLY SIX WEEKS A WIFE

The Romance of a Pretty Telephone Operator Comes to a Sad End—Claims in Suit that Husband Was Cruel—Sought to Win His Affection Back, but in Vain.

Reputed at the time as being worth half a million dollars, William Brooke, a native son of the late J. W. Brooke, for a number of years engaged in the agricultural implement business in this city, trading under the firm name of W. J. Brooke & Co., on September 18, last, married Miss Mae S. Parrish.

It was after a most romantic courtship and ardent wooing of almost a year's duration that young Brooke gained the consent of the beautiful young telephone operator, who was employed at the Arlington Hotel, to become his bride. Not divulging the secret, even to their nearest friends and relatives, they went to Alexandria, Va., on the day named, where the Rev. J. H. S. Ewell tied the knot.

Yesterday, about six weeks after they had given their sacred promise to love each other until "death do part," the young bride, Mrs. Mae S. Brooke, through her attorney, William H. Holloway, filed a petition in the District Supreme Court for a divorce. She also asks the court to pass an order compelling her husband to pay her a reasonable sum of money for her support and maintenance during the pendency of the suit. She also asks a reasonable sum as suit money and counsel fees. Finally, she prays that upon final hearing a decree may be passed awarding her permanent alimony for support and maintenance.

Went to Hotel.

Mrs. Brooke, in her petition, makes the allegation that after they were married they went to a local hotel, and that, at his suggestion, she went to a friend's at 3121 street northeast on the following day to await the selection and preparation of a home. On September 22 they took rooms at 923 New York avenue, where they lived as man and wife until September 23, when her husband drove her from the house, compelling her to go to the residence of a friend, upon whom she now depends.

Mrs. Brooke says from the date of their marriage to the filing of the petition she has conducted herself as a faithful wife. Notwithstanding this, Mrs. Brooke alleges, her husband at a short time after their marriage treated her in a cruel and abusive manner, used vile language, and threatened her with bodily harm, and caused her to be married to make her life miserable.

Mrs. Brooke also claims that her husband is addicted to strong drink, and that on September 23, while they were residing at 923 New York avenue, he came home about 2 o'clock in the morning in an intoxicated condition and without any cause, brutally assaulted her and choked her, the marks of his fingers being visible on her throat for several days thereafter.

He tortured her, she alleges, by twisting her arm and using the most vile and insulting language toward her, and ordered her to get out of the house and stay elsewhere. Mrs. Brooke, being in fear of her life, she alleges, was compelled, at half-past 12 in the morning, to go to her woman friend's on I street northeast, where she has since resided.

Tried to Regain His Love.

The young wife of the defendant alleges that she has endeavored in every way known to her to obtain the affection of her husband and live together in peace and quiet, but that her husband continues to abuse and annoy her, and that she is afraid of him. She says that on October 15, at about 2 o'clock in the morning, he came to the place where she resides, 512 I street, in a cab, accompanied by a friend, and after awakening her, demanded that she get up, dress, and go out with them. She says that on various occasions he has cursed her in the presence of other people, and on the street, and that she finds herself no longer able to endure his association.

Was Telephone Operator.

Mrs. Brooke, at the time of her marriage, was employed as a telephone operator at the Arlington Hotel, earning $10 a week. She was compelled to resign her position after her marriage, the telephone company not employing married women. She claims she is now unable to secure any other position, and is entirely without funds. The statement is made that her husband has an income of about $1,500 a year from trust funds held by the National Safe Deposit, Savings and Trust Company, of this city, for his benefit. That this fund originally amounted to something over $75,000, she believes that advances on the principal have been made to the defendant, and that the fund now amounts to about $30,000, on which he gets the income. The assertion is made that on October 15, Mr. Brooke received a check from the principal of about $2,000 in cash.

Mr. Brooke is about twenty-one years old, and his mother was Miss Helen Holland, a niece of the late Judge Richard J. Brooke, who was chief judge of the sixth judicial court of Maryland. The announcement of young Brooke's marriage when it took place was a great surprise to his friends, as it was not known that he contemplated such a venture. His mother, it is understood, has been greatly grieved that he should have taken such an important step without first consulting her.

Labor Legislation Ended.

The litigation in the local courts between the Burns and Hayes faction of the National organization of the Knights of Labor, which was begun soon after the convention at Niagara Falls, in 1904, when both factions elected complete sets of officers, came to an end yesterday when the sworn petition in quo warranto proceedings were dismissed on application of the relations of the Burns faction. The terms of the officers, the legality of whose election it has been sought to establish, has expired.

Temporary Detent for Johnson.

Mayor Tom Johnson, of Cleveland, met temporary defeat in the Supreme Court of the United States yesterday, in his street railway fight. Chief Justice Fuller directed the clerk to issue to the city of Cleveland and the Forest City Railway a rule to show cause, within ten days, why a permanent injunction should not be granted to prevent them from interfering with the Cleveland Electric Railway Company in the use of its street railway tracks in Cleveland. He also granted the motion for a temporary injunction, effective at once.

Plumbers Hearing To-morrow.

The attorneys representing the journeyman plumbers and the masters of that craft have about completed their respective bills of issues to be presented to the board of arbitration. Testimony will be heard on Friday.

MOLASSES MEN WIN VICTORY.

Are Permitted to Use Sulphuric Acid Under Certain Conditions.

Southern molasses manufacturers gained a point in their appeal to the Department of Agriculture Monday, when it was agreed that sulphuric acid may be used in the juice if, as they claim, it is eliminated in the molasses.

Headed by Representative Broussard, the committee, composed of Director Blount, of the Louisiana agricultural experimental station; J. D. Colcord, and C. V. Moore, conferred with Acting Secretary of Agriculture Hays and Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief of the Bureau of Chemistry. While the government officials did not commit themselves, it is understood that they agreed to permit the use of sulphuric acid as a preservative in the juice from which the molasses is made, if it is proven that the acid is not to be found in the finished product.

After the conference a statement was given out by the committee in which assurance was given the sugar producers of Louisiana that where sulphuric acid is used, it is used in a way in which it is not to be found in the finished product. It is understood that the committee is of the opinion that the use of sulphuric acid is not to be found in the finished product.

"The interpretation put on the regulations by the department are entirely satisfactory to us," said Mr. Colcord, last night. "The committee is of the opinion that it is not one of those, as some prejudiced interests are trying to make the public believe."

WANTS $10,000 DAMAGES.

Charles Tingstrom Says He Was Hurt in Power Plant.

Charles C. Tingstrom yesterday filed suit in the District Supreme Court against the Potomac Electric Power Company, for $10,000 damages. Tingstrom alleges to have sustained serious injuries in an explosion at the company's plant, at Fourteenth and C streets northwest, on November 1, 1906. He claims his eyesight was seriously injured by escaping steam and vapors. The complainant is employed by Littlefield, Brown & Co., and was at the plant of the defendant on the time the explosion occurred.
